

FBR has introduced a new CAPTCHA verification step on the IRIS login portal as an additional security measure.

This extra layer of verification is aimed at enhancing user authentication and protecting taxpayer data from unauthorized access. Users will now need to complete the CAPTCHA before successfully logging into their IRIS accounts.

A positive step towards stronger digital security and safer e-services.